vas no more disposed to favor the treet-car companies than is Harrison.

Hancey was the nominee of the Republican machine, which is dominated by ex-Congressman Wifiliam Lorimer, and this fact cost him many votes in his party, as there are many of the rank and file of the party who are stoutly opposed to their party machine and all of its works.

The Democratic following of ex-Gov. Altgeld was against Harrison.

One of the features of the campaign was the aldermanic contest in the Twenty-first Ward, Mayor Harrison's home ward, where Honore Palmer, son of Potter Palmer, was a candidate for election on the Democratic ticket, it being his first easay in politics. His opponent was S. H. Helm (Rep.) who had been Alderman from the ward for two years. Palmer was elected by a majority of about 1300.

C HICAGO. April 2.—Carter H.

Harrison has been reflected Mayor of Chicago for the second time, and will next week commence his third term as the Chief Executive of the city. His total plurality over Judge Elbridge Hanecy (Rep.) is 28,-257 votes. The total vote of the city is: Harrison, 185,82; Hanecy, 128,696.

Of the thirty-five wards of the city, Harrison today carried twenty-six and Hanecy nine. The vote was badly split, some of the stropgest Republican precents of the city giving only a small plurality for the ticket, and some going to Harrison, who suffered in some of the Democratic strongholds. The city wards were redistricted after the Presidential redistricted after the Presidential election, and the majorities in some of the wards were turned squarely around from what they have always next Municipal Council, as several of the Aldermen who, in ordinary circumstances would have held over, were redistricted out of their wards. There were two hold-overs in the Second and two in the Twenty-first wards and no hold-overs in the Seventh and the Thirty-first. Where there were two Sidd-overs, the new Council will decide when men are entitled to the seat, and where there were none and two men were elected at the present election, the courts will be called upon to decide the question of the legality of an aldermanic election in which two men were elected at one time, instead of one, as provided by the statutes governing the case. For these reasons, it is impossible at this time to predict the exact formation of the new Council, but the indications are at present that the Republicans will have a working majority. The present body consists of 39 Republicans, 27 Democontest.

Mayor Johnson issued a proclamation this afternoon, calling on all ablebodied citizens to present themselves at his office forthwith to be sworn in as special officers for service at the polling places. It was his intention to appoint 2000 special officers if he could secure them. The Mayor took this action on the ground that wholesal frauds were being perpetrated in the interest of the Demogratic ticket.

Within half an hour of the issuance.

HEAVILY REPUBLICAN.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRISSS—P.M.]

DENVER (Colo.,) April 2.—The city election today has gone heavily Republican, the only part which is at all in doubt being the mayoralty and some of the members of the Council. Henry V. Johnson, present Mayor, ran independently on a ticket which with three or four exceptions, was identical with that of the Republicans, headed by Robert R. Wright. The combined vote for the two is conceded by leading Democrats to exceed that for the Democratic ticket headed by Judge E. T. Wells by from 4000 to 5000. Johnson's vote is not far from 4000, which leaves the vote for Mayor in doubt. The Republicans will probably have a majority in the Council.

KANSAS CITY, April 2.—Municipal elections were held in all the larger cities of Kansas today. Party lines were not drawn generally, and in numerous cities the issue was enforcement of the prohibitory liquor law, Mrs. Nation's crusade having aroused the temperance people to political action. In the most important cities the results of the election were discouraging to the Prohibitionists.

In Kansas City, Kan., the largest city in the State, the Democrats achieved a aweeping victory for the first time in the city's history, electing the Mayor and nearly all the other officers by 900 plurality. In Topeka, where the Republican ticket was supported by the law-enforcement people, the Democrats. claim to have elected Arthur Parker Mayor, the remainder of the officers being Republicans.

J. W. Orr, Democrat. was elected Mayor of Atchison by 500 majority.

At Leavenworth the entire Democratic citeket was elected by a majority of 500. 000, and is in the nature of a thirty-days' option on canning plants, to sell or lease for one year, as the one who takes the option may see fit. The Democratic candidates carried all the city offices on the ticket, as well as that of Mayor. William Loeffer was elected City Clerk; A. J. Ryan City Attorney, and C. F. Gunther. City Treasurer. From the figures available at midnight, it appears that their pluralities will be within a thousand of Mayor Harrison's. None of them will probably have a majority exceeding his.

In the various towns, the elections were about evenly divided. The Democrats carried the south, north and probably the west towns, while Republican officials have been elected in the towns of Jefferson, Hyde Park and Cicero. The Municipal Voters' League, an organisation composed of business men, took an energetic part in the aldermanic contests in the various wards. The aim of the organisation was to secure the nomination of men considered most competent to serve as aldermen, irrespective of politics. The league indorsed twenty-nine candidates, of whom eighteen were elected. WASHINGTON, April 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Concerning the report that J. P. [BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.] WASHINGTON, April 2.—The War Department received information from

as follows:

"Tho commander will throw the burden of war, as much as lies within his power, on the disloyal citisens of the revolted portion or province, and if he deems it appropriate, or if his government demands of him that every citizen shall, by an oath of allegiance, declare his fidelity to the legitimate government, he may expel, transfer, imprison or fine the revolting citizens who refuse to take the oath, etc. Whether it is expedient to do so, and whather allow a subject upon such each, the commander or his government has the right to decide.

In the present case, Gen, MacArthur has considered it expedient to have Aguinaldo take this oath, and apparently has held that reliance can be piaced upon the oath. The army regulations make no distinct provision that the taking of the oath shall give complete liberty to a person, although the above quoted provision shows that those manifesting loyalty by subscribing to an oath of all allegiance are to be spared from the hardships of war, and that only those remaining disloyal are to be visited with the harsh treatment of war.

IN THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.I Reply Regarding Manchuria Not Satisfactory to the Mikado's Folks.

> LONDON, April 3.—(By Atlantic Ca-ble.) Russia's reply to Japan's pro-test against the Manchurian convention, says the Yokohama correspondent of the Daily Mail, is regarded as unof the House of Peers, in the course of an inflammatory speech openly discussed the probable results of a war between Japan and Russis, and said that Japan could count upon the friendly neutrality of Great Britain and Germany. He declared that the United States would not interfere, and that France would only cause uneasiness by the employment of her Anamese forces and by a naval demonstration off Formosa. This, he predicted, would be the limit of French action, and therefore Japan's vastly superiorarmy would be enabled without great difficulty to drive Russia out of Manchuria.

Unofficial observers scarcely understand how a doubt can possibly be entertained abroad that China will ultimately accept the Russian canditions, after it is apparent that no power is willing to forcibly support China. For, as it is urged, while Russia undoubtedly prefers to carry through her pians as made, her diplomatic position would suffer as little, as her military position from China's refusal to accept what Russia regards as moderate conditions of withdrawal.

PAO TING FU PEACEPUL

FRENCH TROOPS IN RESTRAINT (BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)
PAO TING FU, March 30, via Peking, March 21.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Though Pao Ting Fu may be reached in a few hours by raliroad, it is practically un-known to foreigners now in Peking. Marvelous stories and rumors pass as current facts, but are entirely without foundation. After the occupation of current facts, but are entirely without foundation. After the occupation of Pao Ting Fu, an agreement was entered into between the allies and the Chinese that the former should not advance beyond the province of Chi Li, and the latter should not go beyond ten miles inside the Shen Si province. The Chinese have frequently broken that agreement, and have been attacked by both Germans and French in different parts of the province.

Chi Li at present has 10,000 Chinese troops, commanded by Liu Klauntes, the famous black fag leader, within twelve miles of Huo Lu, where there are 3000 French troops who are anxious to make an attack, but are restrained by positive orders from Peking, M. Pichon, the French Minister, having informed Gen. Voyron, commanding the French troops, that he had received instructions from France to the effect that the government does not desire aggressive action on the part of the troops, provided the Chinese do not advance, which is not considered likely. There is little chance, therefore, of a collision.

Early in March 150 Germans were killed. Two thousand soldiers entered Shan Si province through the Ante-Suling Pass, driving the Chinese beyond Chai Quan, and then retiring to Ante Suling, where they are now in to Ante Suling, where they are now in camp.

French officers state that Shan Si has a different people from the Chi Idprovince, the inhabitants being more arrogant, daring the foreign troops to enter. The French have large supplies at Cheng Ling and Huo Lu, including camel trains.

Pao Ting Fu is entirely peaceful and its condition is better than that of any other city occupied by the allies. Chinese officials conduct the entire government of the city, the French and German commission acting in an entirely advisory capacity and never interfering except in cases where flagant injustice has been done, when they act as a sort of court of appeals. Most frequently they have been called upon owing to the interference of Catholic missionaries and the exaction of extortions.

Chinese officers conduct the entire government of the city, the French and German commissions acting in an entirely advisory capacity, and never interfering except in cases where flagrant injustice has apparently been done, when they act as a sort of court of appeals. They have frequently been called upon, owing to the exaction of extortions.

French officers say that if it is customary in ordinary times to subject the native converts to extortion, China has a grievance that would not be tolerated by any other country. Lieut. Reeves, the military attaché of the United States legation, recently reported to Mr. Squires, the charge d'affaires, a similar state of things regarding Catholic missionaries.

DESTRUCTION OF FORTS.

FOREIGN MERCHANTS PLEASED. (BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.) PEKING, April 1.—(By Asiatic Ca-ble.) Regarding the destruction of the ble.] Regarding the destruction of the forts the generals are practically agreed that those at Taku, Shan Hai agreed that those at Taku, Shan Hal Kwan and Tien-Trin must at least be rendered useless, while the north fort at the entrance of the river Taku must be destroyed entirely, on account of the fact that ever since it was built it has caused lower water on the bar, and diverted the course of the stream.

The merchants have frequently complained to the consuls, but no government has liked to ask China to destroy a fort at the entrance to an important river. This, however, can now be done as a matter of millitary necessity, and will give foreign merchants intense satisfaction, as in consequence of its being done, the river will in a short time again be navigable as far as Tien-Trin.

He asserts that China was willing to disclose the terms of all her agreements with Russia, but that the latter insisted upon keeping them secret.

Adventure of Capt. Erick son Up the Kuskokwim River.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES SEATTLE, April 2 .- [Exclusive Dispatch.] Capt. E. Erick son of San Francisco, who ar rived here yesterday, tells a story of adventure and hardships with a wonderful golden climax. Forty miles up the Kuskokwim River, according to Erickson and J. B. Rawlins the diggings are richer than at Nome

The 12-ton schooner Bear, in command of Capt Erickson, sailed from Nome for Kuskokwim July 17 last.

There were sixteen men aboard the little craft. At Nunivak, the supplies were getting short, and the wrecked barkentine Leslie D was found with plenty of provisions. No one would take possession, so Capt. Erickson sailed on to Kuskokwim River, where half the party were left with scant rations to prospect. Erickson, with the remainder of the party, sailed back to the wrecked barkentine, 700 miles, only to find Capt. Hansen o the schooner Wing and Wing in possession. For a time trouble was in the air, but finally Erickson sailed away without food. At last he got food at Togiak River.

After a long voyage, he again reached the Kuskokwim to find the men badly in need, but well supplied with gold. Forty miles up the river, Erickson says, they found coarse gold in large quantities at the roots of the grass. It was organized as Norman District.

ET THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.1 LONDON, April 2.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The disaffection existing among the Lanarkshire miners and engineers, 30,000 of whom are idle, owing to a strike for an eight-hour day, is having an adverse effect on the iron and steel works in Scotland. Some of the ironmasters have taken steps to damp down their furnaces tonight, and steel makers will stop their mills. The railmakers will stop their mills. The rail-roads, enabled by the slackness of work, are sending engineers and shunt-ers to some of the mines.

Some of the smaller collieries have granted the eight-hour day demanded by the strikers.

AN EASY WAY

To Keep Well.

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health.

The all important thing is to keep the stomach right and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and - feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

Prof. Wiechold gives pretty good advice on this subject; he says: "I am 68 years old and have never had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one, but I early discovered that the way to keep healthy was to keep a healthy stomach, not by eating bran crackers or dieting of any sort; on the contrary I always eat what my appetite craves, but for the past eight years I have made it a daily practice to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attributes my rest or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attribute my ro-bust health for a man of my age to the regular daily use of Stuart's Tab-

"My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret patent medicine, but contained only the natural digestives, peptones and diastase, and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice.

"I honestly believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit, because their use brings health to the sick and alling and preserves health to the well and strong."

alling and preserves health to the well and strong."

Men and women past fifty years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tableta.

They are found in every well regulated household from Maine to California and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor.

All drugsists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full-sized packages at 50 cents and for a weak stomach a fifty-cent package will often do fifty dollars' worth of good.

Women as Well as Men are Made filserable by Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. So when your kidneys are weak or out of order you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail te do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the famous new discovery, Dr. Klimer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help

Many women suffer untold mivery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood; in most cases they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their many ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

Neuralgia, nervousness, headache, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, rheumatism, a dragging pain or dail ache in the back, weakness or bearing down sensation, profuse or scanty supply of urine, with strong odor, frequent desire to pass it night or day, with scalding or burning sensation—these are all unor burning sensation--these are all un-mistakable signs of kidney and bladder

BOSTON, April 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Jean de Resuke's voice has failed him again. In consequence, the new French opera, "Le Cld" was not given here tonight by the Grau Opera Company. The management simply announced a change of operas, and said the great tenor was indisposed. As near as can be learned tonight, De Resuke has been stricken with the same form of bronchitis with which he was afficted last year, and which kept him volceless for many months. His physicians believe that he will be unable ever to appear on the operatic stage again.

The last recovery of De Reszke was a matter of weary months, and after a long rest, when he did attempt to sing in public he was a failure. It is only since he came to America that his voice has regained its former brilliancy. Now the doctors say the strain to which he has subjected it has proved too great, and he must pay a severe penalty. His age, too, is against him, and it is impossible for him to recuperate, as he did previously. "Jean de Reszke's voice will be only a memory hereafter," is the mournful prophesy of music lovers here tonight.

among them Lord Salisbury, whose improvement is marked. Contradictions of the report of his failing health and impending retirement are emphasized at Westminster on the eve of the Easter recess, but those closest in touch with public affairs are not misled by the optimistism prevailing on the ministerial side. The Prime Minister's intense eagerness to be relieved from official cares is known, and his retirement from public life is much nearer than is generally believed. One forecast may be repeated with confidence, as it is obtained from high authority. That is the speedy appointment of Mr. Balfour as Prime Minister with elevation to the pearage. Mr. Balfour's presence at Windsor on Sunday is explained by the fact that a change is impending at an early day, and that he has been in consultation with the King respecting it. The high authority asserts that Mr. Balfour's elevation to the pearage is the King's method of determining the succession to the premierable, and that Lord Salisbury will retire as soon as this change can be effected.

"The effect of the consolidation," said Mr. Mewers, "will be greater profits for the stockholders, but not through the increase in the price of the product of the smelter. On the contrary, we are reducing prices. Profits are to be made larger by extending the smelter business. We are not shutting down any smelters."

the Duke of Devonshire. Lord President of the Council, took a pessimistic view of American and other competition. He said the total orders for rails increase. Either less rails were required or buyers were waiting in expectation of lower prices. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2—(Exclusive Dispatch.] In the course of a quarrel over a lease and delinquent rent, Evangeline Curnier, 13 years old, was thrown out into the rain from her home, wisle she was convalescent from pneumonia. She is now suffering a serious relapse as the consequence.

Mr. Curnier leased the furniture of their house to Mrs. Skillman, and rented two rooms from her. Mrs. Skillman paid two month's rent, and then refused yesterday to pay a third month's rent because she claimed the other parties owned the furniture. Curnier then refused to pay his rent. When all the Curnier family except Evangeline and her little brother, were away today, Fred Skillman, the husky young son of Mrs. Skillman, entered the Curnier rooms and brutally threw Evangeline out into the yard. The girl had only thin clothes on, and was soon wet to the skin. Neighbors warned the Society for Prevention of Crueity to Children, and the officers compelled Skillman to permit the child to occupy her room. She was put to bed, but soon had high fever, and may not recover. Two children of the Curnier's died recently of pneumonia.

As regards the State of Yucatan, Barnes said a franchise has been secured from the city of Merida by the Merida Well Company, in which American capital is largely interested, with a view to the conveying of water in pipes and the erection of hydrants in the streets of Yucatan's capital. Pure water has been struck by the sinking of artesian wells to a depth of some six hundred feet. Four wells are already sunk and about a score more will be bored, all of which will mean the purchase of considerable American machinery.

"The prosperity of the country is autounding." said Barnes, "the existing condition of affairs being brought about mainly by the increase in the price of hemp. The inhabitants have their hands full, therefore, and are looking to foreign contractors to undertake the drainage work. It is proposed to build a four to six foot iron pipe line between Merida and Progresso, a distance of twenty-eight miles. The pipe contract alone would involve an expenditure of some $2,000,000. "Al-together," concluded Mr. Barnes, "the chances of the American export trade in that region are exceedingly promis-

"The great changes which had come about in the traffic world had convinced the directors that the time had arrived to inaugurate the 'open-door policy' for the Panama route and we therefore declined to confer upon any one steamship line exclusive privileges over the Panama route. We accordingly negotiated and recently have executed satisfactory traffic agreements with several important steamship lines on the Pacific, and also have renewed the long-standing contracts with the several Atlantic lines now serving the Panama route. The same provision upon equal terms was offered to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, but that company expressed its unwillingness to contract other than upon an exclusive basis."

The report also says that the growth of traffic will require additions to the steamship service both from the Atlantic and Pacific sides.

Valet Jones Killed His Aged Benefactor.

Patrick Was in Plot to Steal Millions.

Millionaire Was Chloroformed in His Bed-Confessor and Accused Very Cool.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M. NEW YORK, April 2.-Without the slightest quaver in his voice, and displaying no outward sign of regret or remorse, Charles F: Jones, secretary and valet to the late William Marsh

Rice, today confessed under oath that he had ended the life of his employer and benefactor with chloroform. The confession was the climax of a remarkable recital in which was laid bare the details of an alleged subtle conspiracy which had for its object the seizure of $3,000,000 in cash and ne-gotiable securities, and the appropria-tion of $3,000,000 in realty to the uses of the alleged chief conspirator.

The self-confessed murderer told the story of the alleged plot from its inception. The capital crime he committed and all the minor offenses that preceded it were, he deciared, at the instigation and direction of Albert T. Patrick. It was Patrick, he said, who and forging transfers and conveyances. It was Patrick who induced two per-sons to wincess the forged signatures. It was Patrick who determined that sons to witness the forged signatures. It was Patrick who determined that Rice should die, and it was Patrick who sought to have him killed slowly, and then, becoming impatient, determined upon quick action, and, according to Jones, remarkable as it may seem, Rice never knew Patrick during his lifetime and never saw him but once.

Jones looked straight into the eyes of Assistant District Attorney Osborne and told his story without a break, without a tremor in his voice. He described his approach to Rice's bed with the chloroform-saturated napkin in his hand; of placing it over the face of the sleeping old man; of the fight from the room; of the weary wait of thirty minutes in accordance with Patrick's alieged instructions.

At the expiration of the half hour he returned and found Rice dead, He then threw open the windows to free the room of the odor of chloroform, telephoned to Patrick that Rice was dead, sent for a physician, and then, after expressing his grief at the loss of so good and kind an employer, he said he went to bed and fell into a sound sleep.

PATRICK VERY COOL.

PATRICK VERY COOL.

Patrick, accused by the witness of being the arch criminal, listened to the witness with attention, and occasionally made notes of the testimony. Not even the remarkable witness on the stand was more cool, calm and collected than this remarkable prisoner. Patrick's hand was firm and steady, He displayed neither anger, fear, nor resentment. When Jones reached the description of the murder of the sleeping man, Patrick merely stroked his beard and leaned back in his chair, apparently slightly bored by the recital of the details.

Jones said Meyer and Short were at Witness then went on to say that he secured the poison, chloroform and laudanum from his brother in Texas.

NEVER KNEW RICE. Jones testified that he delivered the poison to Patrick about three weeks before the death of Rice. Jones then poison to Patrick about three weeks before the death of Rice. Jones then went on to testify that Patrick had never been introduced to Rice up to the time of the latter's death.

Jones then related what took place on the day of the death of Mr. Rice.

"I saw Patrick at his house," said he. "He told me to let him know if Rice grew better. He would then get from his office a bottle of oxalic acid, he said, to quicken Rice's nerve."

Rice got better, and about noon he wanted to get up. He talked cheerfully about going downtown, and seemed much improved. Jones said he could not get Rice to take the acid. He telephoned Patrick to meet him at luncheon at a restaurant on Sixth avenue near Fiftieth street.

"I met him there," Jones continued. "Patrick gave me the bottle of chloroform. He told me to saturate a towel in chloroform and leave it over his face for about thirty minutes. He said Rice would probably laugh, but that I should not be scared, as that would only show that the poison was beginning to work, and that it would soon be over.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

THE MURDER.

"I did as Patrick told me. I returned home, took a napkin and saturated it with chloroform. I put it on my own face first, and then put it over the face of Mr. Rice, and left the room. I walked up and down the halls. The bell rang several times. I did not open the door. Finally, after about half an hour, I went into Mr. Rice's room. I raised the window, took the napkin and towel away from his face, and placed them both in the range, where I burned them. I sent a hall boy for Dr. Curry, telling him that Mr. Rice was very bad. I went to the telephone to tell Patrick that Rice was pretty near gone. When Dr. Curry came Patrick was with him. I told them Rice was dead. "Dead! Oh, my God, doctor, that is the worst thing that could have happened to me," said Patrick."

GATHERED UP THE VALUABLES, Jones testified at length about the post mortem incidents. He said Patrick on the day following took charge of the apartments. On that day Jones testified at the request of Patrick he made out the checks for $25,000 and $135,000, respectively, on Swenson & small and frequent doses is to induce expectoration, allay the spas-

Action for Partition at New York.

Wild Oats of Young George Count.

Uncle Says the Nephew Was Heavily in Debt in

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, April 2.—[Exclusive Disputch.] In an action for the parti-Dispatch.] In an action for the partition of the Buckingham Hotel, the Belgravia apartment house at No. 615 Fifth avenue, and other property owned by the late George Kemp, which action was on trial before Justice Fitsgerald in the Supreme Court today, the construction of his will and that of his wife were involved, mainly insofar as their son George Kemp, Jr., is provided for in two instruments.

far as their son George Kemp, Jr., is provided for in two instruments.

George Kemp died in 1894, leaving a $5,000,000 estate to the widow and four children. When Mrs. Kemp died she created a trust fund to give George an income of $9000 a year for life, and divided up the remaining $2,000,000 so that her other three children and George should share the money equality, less $150,000 apart for the trust fund to secure his income of $9000 a year. She died in 1897. Her other three children to do not object to the provision of $9000 a year for their brother, but they contend that under the father's will, the mother could not let George share in the rest of the two-fifths.

To show that their father meant to exclude George from any large share in his estate, evidence was given as to the conduct of George, Edward provided for in two instruments.

as to the conduct of George. Edward Kemp, brother of the testator, testi-fied that George Kemp, Jr., had been sent by his father to Columbia Col-lege, and therafter joined the firm. Part of the receipts of the firm were allowed to him. George drew what-ever he wanted, but with all his draw-

After the young man got cace from California, Kemp said he still drank, and on one occasion got in a row at Delmonico's. The trouble was over a cabman's bill and young Kemp thrashed the cabman. The witness ald his nephew did not pay full at-tention to business, and was incom-petent. Kemp said that while George Kemp, Jr., was at college, his father's Kemp, Jr., was at college, his father's income was $100,000 a year. At the time of the testator's death, his income had increased to $150,000 a year. The witness told the testator some time before his death that if everything went right, the testator's income would soon be $125,000 a year, to which his brother replied: "Bosh."

After the pagment of legacies, the witness figured that the residuary estate of his brother yields an income of from $150,000 to $175,000 a year.

from $150,000 to $175,000 a year. The case went over till tomorrow.

CANNERY PROSPECTS. WHITTIER, April 2.—[Regular Cor-espondence.] Officials of the Califorrespondence, Onlease of the case of the plant of the Quaker Colony Canning Company. Before the association was organised the Whittler Cannery did a remarkably large business. During the season of 1899 it handled over thirty tons of deciduous fruits, a large portion of which was shipped here from other points, besides a large quantity of vegetables and berries. When the Quaker Colony Canning Company was merged into the association the business decreased, as the fruit could be handled by canneries mearer the place of production. There is but a small amount of deciduous fruit grown in this section, and if the cannery is operated it will do but little business as compared with former years. nia Fruit Canners' Association are ex-business as compared with former years.

The City Council Monday evening by a vote of three to one enacted an amendment to a previous ordinance whereby the barber shops will now have the privilege of keeping open until 11 o'clock Sunday forenoon. The Council elected Cashier George E. Litte of the First National Bank as Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. C. Andrews.

OBITUARY.

David Henning. David Henning.

CHICAGO, April 2.—David Henning, the Chleago apple king, is dead at his former home in Battle Creek, Mich, from a rupture of a blood vessel, Mr. Henning was born in Newry, Armagh county, Ireland, November 25, 1821, coming to America when 12 years old. He learned the cooper trade in Detroit, and started a shop in Ann Arbor. Finding himself overstocked with unsalable barrels, he filled them with apples, and the sale started him on the road to wealth. He became so heavily interested in the trade that he removed his headquarters to Chicago, where he became known as the "Apple King."

Mr. Henning also controlled the gas plants at Ann Arbor, Leavenworth, testimony of the detectives went to show that he betrayed many signs of gulit when taken into custody, and that before being put on trial he virtually confessed to the murder. At the trial the prisoner made no defense beyond declaring his innocence. To the careless observer he seemed so weighted down with his gulit that he could not arouse himself. The trial was little better than a formality, and two or three days later Barlow arrived at the prison.

He was calm and quiet, and it was a couple of weeks before he woke up, as it were. As in the case of other life prisoners, he was put in solitary confinement for the first month. The time had only half expired when he began weeping, crying and shouting, and when the deputy came to him he walled out:

"Set me free! Let me out of this! I am here for murdering Clara, but God knows that I am an innocent man!"

His tears and ravings were taken as the result of a guilty conscience. There was no pity for him, but because he continued to wail he was taken from the "solitary" and put to work. It was little work they got out of him. His fits of weeping prevented that. He was lectured by the deputy and the warden, but it seemed as if he could not restrain himself.

It is a rare thing to find one prisoner pitying another, or believing that a fellow-convict had been unjustly condemmed. Barlow had not been in warden, but it seemed as if he could not restrain himself.

It is a rare thing to find one prisoner pitying another, or believing that a fellow-convict had been unjustly condemned. Barlow had not been in prison six weeks before he was an object of ridicule and contempt among the prisoners, and he was sternly told by the authorities that if he didn't brace up he would be punished. The man did his best, as everybody afterward came to believe, but it was no use. He tried suicide three times in one month. He refused all food, had to be sent to the hospital, and for weeks he lay in the shadow of death with brain fever.

He was a wreck when he got over his illness, and he had been in prison quite a year before he went to work in the tailor shop. The change in him when he got about was just what had been looked for. He became silient, morose and dangerous. While he obeyed the rules to the letter, he felt that he was unjustly accused and unjustly sentenced, and there would come a day when he would turn loose on a guard or a fellow-convict and commit murder.

Among the 650 convicts in the prison were some desperate men—men who were marked "E. D.," (extra desperate, burglary and deadly assault, and were always plotting and scheming, any one of the gang would have knifed or brained a guard to make an opening for escape.

When Barlow was entering upon his second year it was noised through the prison that the Governor would pay a visit to look into three or four cases where pardons had been asked for. When he arrived he was attended only by his secretary, and he insisted upon passing about alone and talking freely with the prisoners. There was talk of mismanagement, and the Governor was fair enough to want to hear both sides of the case.

It so happened that four of the "E. D." men were working in the yard that day, moving a big boller. Each of the four had applied for a pardon, and been refused, and he had swern revenge. They had plotted to get up a scene in the yard during the Governor's visit. By throwing down their tool cording to a press dispatch from that y, has "succeeded in making a small ock of solidified air which was as tial (for the time being) as a the ordinary air it lasted about fit-en minutes. Prof. Metz laid it on an wil, and "as he struck it the ham-er bounded off as though it had been plece of rubber." The method by ich the air was solidified is interestg because of its simplicity. It is thus lefly described:

Taking a large test tube about ghteen inches long and over an inch diameter, Prof. Metz put liquid air to it, filling it to within six inches the top. He then corked it and rough the cork inserted a bent-glass be connected with his vacuum aparatus, the full power of which was spiled in order to induce rapid evapation. The volume of air remaining the tube was found solidified in a mp a little more than an inch deep, order to extract this it was found scessary to break the test tube, and ten the lump of solid air was fully posed to the action of the atcephere."

It is as to say that the crowds of tourists now solourning in Los Angeles if they affect that the context of the second class are capable of reduction to liquids, and from liquids to solids, by extracting the heat which keeps them in the gaseous form. The difficulty hereofore has been in the extraction of the heat; or, in other words, in the production of a sufficiently low degree of artificial cold. process," made possible the production of liquid air on a large scale, at a comparatively low cost. This has evidently made possible the production of frozen air, if any practical use should develop for air in that form.

The experiment of Prof. Metz calls up some interesting speculations. Are we to be made familiar, not merely with liquid air, but with air in the solid state? Is the time near at hand when air and other gases—like oxygen, nitrogen, carbonic acid, etc.—will be bought and sold in congealed form? Perhaps—who knows?—instead of buying liquid air by the gallon we shall have atmospheric ice delivered to us by the pound—or perhaps by the ounce—at so much per.

It is probably a safe proposition that within the next few years civilized man will make great progress in the manipulation and regulation of heat,

A Los Angeles lady had company for dinner one evening recently, and after the guests were seated she went into the pantry to get a pitcher of mapie syrup. Her little six-year-old daughter happened to sit where she could look into the pantry. Her mother poured the syrup out of the jug and dexterously caught a bit on her tongue that was about to drop, as she finished pouring. The little girl clapped her hand and impetuously exclaimed, "Oh, ma licked the jug!" This sudden outburst "broke up" the assemblage, and the mother, with a very red face, was obliged to acknowledge that it was "on her" that time.

that offenses against the articles of war excepted in the proclamation of amnesty refer to murderers and like depredations. Only recently five Filipino officers were executed for such offenses. It is not known here whether Aguinaldo was responsible in any case for such offenses, though from the fact that Gen. There are at present fifty-seven of our naval vessels on the Asiatic station—a greater number than everbefore has been mobilized there, and including some of the finest battle-ships, cruisers and ironclads in the American navy. A good many of them will be now sent home. It is possible that the European station, with headquarters in the Mediterranean, will be revived, and also that the recreation of the old South Pacific station will follow. Lore has a beautifully illustrated article on Pelican Island, in the Indian river, and the editor invokes the aid of the Times-Union in the effort to save this harmless and picturesque bird from the extermination that has aiready overtaken his white brother of our coast. It is pointed out that the brown pelican of Florida has now enly one rookery, which is so convenient to the reckless gunners that slaughter during the helpless period of incubation is doing its appointed work.

The legislature would gladly add another good law to our statute book, but has this availed to save the egret, the paroquet or the pink curlew? Until the people themselves sternly repress such cruelty it will continue in defiance of the law, and it is better not to tempt defiance and encourage the spirit of lawiessness. The Floridian instinctively revolts against any appearance of inhospitality. Too many are interested in seeking every pastine for those who care nothing for our future. We fear the pelican most go the way of the flamingo.

If there is a spirit abroad along the coast which will punish those agents of northern firms who come down to slay for business and repress the cruel waste of our visitors, the people have representatives in the legislature, and Cellar, Sow Spawn and Keep the Temperature Even.

[Kansas City Star:] "Every family that has a fondness for mushrooms and lives in a house with a cellar—the basement of a flat will do—ought to have a mushroom garden," said Arthur Newell last week. "The cost of the garden is very little and the labor is light, but the reward is exceedingly great. There is no reason why you should not have mushrooms on your table every day in the winter."

Arthur Newell is a florist. He has a great fondness for mushrooms, and used to spend on them more than he could afford. Last fall he decided he would try his luck at raising them. He planted a little patch of them in his cellar and had mushrooms all through the winter. Although his mushroom bed occupies only a little space—it is about four by twelve feet—he raised more mushrooms than he could possibly use, and he has been giving boxes of them away to his friends. Mr. Newell: is very enthusiastic about his sucess.

"You may grow your mushrooms un-

"Tou may grow your mushrooms under your dining room," he said last week. "No matter how far down town you may live, you may grow mushrooms, provided you have a cellar with an even temperature. I grow all my mushrooms under my store at Twelfth street and Baltimore avenue.

"In the first place the proper time to plant mushrooms is in the last months of the summer. August is the best month. The spawn requires about six weeks to germinate. In September you should have your first crop. After that you may cut mushrooms from your garden every few days.

"Your cellar must be dark, and the temperature in it must be even. A range of temperature from 40 to 60 degrees is about right. Too much warmth should be avoided rather than too much cold.

"Inclose a small place in your cellar for the garden by fixing planks on edge for a border. Then cover the garden space to a depth of about five inches with a mixture of two parts of horse manure and one part of fresh earth. Be sure you get fresh manure, with as little straw in it as possible.

"The mushroom spawn can be bought at any good seed store. There are many varieties, but I find the English the best. It comes in bricks that sell for about 20 cents apiece. Two bricks will be enough for your garden. Plant the spawn just as you would plant seed, dropping it in little furrows and then covering it lightly. In a short time it will send up shoots and runners, and when it comes up you will find it clustered in little stools.

"After you have planted your mushroom bed, and left it alone for ten days cover it with two inches of the richest earth you can find. The best way to find it is to go to the woods for it. Leaf mold is the best earth, tramp it down until it is firm.

Another enthusiastic mushroom grower is George M. Kimbali, a fiorist, who has a farm at Pleasant Hill, where he grows mushrooms and cut flowers for the market. Mr. Kimbali's testimony is valuable because he can tell just how profitable mushroom growing is as a business. He has not given his mushrooms the attention Mr. Newell gave to his, but he has been growing them longer.

"I grow my mushrooms in dark sheds, that serve as wind breaks to my hothouses," said Mr. Kimbali, "I find that a mushroom crop under such cir-time to devote to them. The best way to raise mushrooms on a slarge scale is to raise them in natural caves. Here the temperature is about the same the year around, and that is just what is necessary for mushrooms.

"Many surprises occur in growing mushrooms. They play curious tricks on the grower sometimes. A man near Fort Scott had a mushroom farm in an old abandoned ice house near the river. One night they were all frozen. They withered and shriveled up. He thought the whole mushroom farm was ruined, and went away. But one night a week later there was a big rain, and when the man came down to the ice house he found an unbroken carpet of mushrooms that covered every foot of his garden.

"Mushrooms will pay if you manage to raise enough of them. They are worth now about fifty cents a pound retail, and there is a steady demand for them. The market is not confined to Kansas City. You can always self mushrooms in the East. Once I sold the entire output of my mushroom sheds to a restaurant man in Buffalo. Two years ago I shipped mushrooms to Seattle, Wash."

The girl to whom this pathetic appeal is addressed is probably masquerading in Southern California in male attire. She disappeared from her home in Colfax, Wash, March 13, and her relatives have reason to believe that she came to this city. Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, the mother of the girl, is principal of one of the Colfax public schools, and is heartbroken over her daughter's disappearance. Laura is 16 years old, and is supposed to have run away from home on account of having been suspended from school for one day by Frof. Ransom, Superintendent of the City Schools, for some infraction of the rules.

Upon being suspended, Miss Morgan left the schoolhouse ostensibly for home, which she never reached. She was seen in the outskirts of the town, soing toward the river, and the next morning her books and cap were found, the former on the river bank and the latter on a bridge near the fair grounds. ANCIENT RIVER BED CONTAINS

Although Shafts Have Been Sunk to a Depth of Seventy-five Feet, Bedrock Has not Been Found—Pay Dirt All

What may possibly be another rich gold field has been discovered in this county at a point about twenty-five miles east of Lancaster, a small station on the Southern Pacific Railroad in the northeastern part of the county. Just how rich this new field may be, can only be guessed, at this time, but it has been prospected enough to convince old mining men that the precious metal is there in paying quantities.

enough to convince old mining men that the precious metal is there in paying quantities.

Aside from its value as a possible gold producer, the field is decidedly interesting from a geological standpoint for it is nothing less than an ancient river bed in the hot Mojave Desert. The investigations conducted so far show the bed to be from one-half mile to one mile in width, and between well-defined granite walls. It has been traced for a distance of fifteen miles and is said to extend in a northeast-southwest direction.

It is filled with smooth, well-worn granite and iron rock boulders ranging in size from a hen's egg to an office desk, and many varieties of quarts have been found which are of a formation differing from that of the surrounding country. Many of these boulders contain considerable iron and all the rock shows free gold.

In prospecting the river bed three shafts were sunk to a depth of about seventy-five feet, boulders being passed that weigh several tons each. Bedrock has not yet been reached, but much placer gold was washed out in sinking the shafts and "colors" were found under the boulders displaced. The formation is of a comentitious nature, but in one of the shafts over twenty feet of quicksand was encountered.

It is believed that this new field contains much placer gold, for where boulders containing free gold are found there must be large quantities of placer gold on the bedrock. On this supposition many placer claims have been staked out and there is considerable excitement in that section known to be fifteen miles in length, there are still plenty of ground-floor claims to be had. Appearances in-dicate that the ground can be easily

Maj. Wankowski is Getting His Men in Shape to Take to the Santa Crus

Co.s A, C and F of the Seventh Reg-iment, N.G.C., drilled in battalion at the Armory last night under the com-mand of Maj. Robert Wankowski. There were not enough men to make a very imposing aggregation, but a larger battalion could not have been handled to advantage in the cramped drill hall. On the whole, the companies made a creditable showing.

They were handled very prettily, indeed. The major, as well as the three company commanders, Reynolds, Cole and Bradbury, are guardsmen of years of experience, and are among the most thorough tacticians in the regiment. As a consequence, the maneuvers went with a biff. There were not enough men to mak of experience, and are among the most thorough tacticians in the regiment. As a consequence, the maneuvers went with a biff.

The whole battalion was mounted as a guard during the evening. The details for guard mount were as follows: Capt. Reynolds, old officer of the day; Capt. Cole, new officer of the day; First Lleut. Lockwood, commander of the guard; Lieut. Saltmarsh, junior officer of the guard; White sergeant-major.

This is the ceremony to try the aculs of the non-commissioned officers. They got through very nicely except for a sergeant, who had an inspiration to bring up his detail on the wrong side of the sergeant-major and had to try it over again.

One of the objects of holding the drill was to get the men in shape for the coming encampment at Santa Cruz. If the absent majority of the men can do as well as those who turned out last night, Los Angeles will be decently represented. There was not much style in the drill last night, but it was steady.

[THE OIL INDUSTRY.]

Compressed Air Used With Success in Kern River-News of Operators.

There is rejoicing in the camp of the Royal Sunset Oil Company out in section 35, in the Sunset field, where it is reported a fine flow of oil has just hem uncapped by the drill. News received by Maj. George Easton in this dity yesterday was to the effect that at a depth of 600 feet oil and gas were found in large quantities, and that the prospects are that the new hole will prove one of the big producers of that end of the field.

Extensive development work is being carried on in the Sunset field, where operators are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the railroad. Out on section 35, 12, 24, on property adjoining the 35, 12, 24, on property adjoining the Royal Sunset Company, the J.B.B. Company No. 2 has reached the oil sand in its first well, and is well pleased over the result. The developpleased over the result. The develop-ment work there has proven beyond doubt that there is oil in pienty. The Sunset Consolidated well is not flowing now, and has settled down to a very small producer, so unsatisfactory that the operators have decided to com-mence deepening it at once. It is the intention to drill to the deeper sand that is known to underlie the first stratum, and which has also been proven very rich.

that is known to underlie the first stratum, and which has also been proven very rich.

"Slow and Sure" is the motto of the King Company, and following this rule the company has made very satisfactory progress on its property on section is. It has been bailing oil from the hole for several weeks and has been selling lit to other operators in the field at 30 cents per barrel. So far the company has cleared 3300.

The Medina at Sunset has what is believed to be a hundred-barrel well. The hole is full and running over, but the casing has not yet been perforated. A recent visitor to Sunset counted eight six-horse teams moving material isto the district.

the northern field was in well No. 1 of the Euclid Oil Company, which was be on the pump Monday.

In the Kern River field the operations are troubled not a little with shifting sands which fill up the casing, making it necessary to clean out the hole every few days. Under the new method the oil is forced up from the bottom, and when properly handled it cleans out the hole so fast that it is necessary to stop in order to let the hole fill.

The Euclid hole was partly filled when experiment was fried, but in spite of it, from the start the well was made to produce more than when it was first put on the pump. The result of the experiment is viewed with much satisfaction by the operators who declare that compressed air pumping will revolutionize the business.

"ERIE" WILL NOT ASSESS. An important meeting of the stock-holders of the Eric Oil Company was held last evening, the object being to raise more funds for carrying on de-velopment work on its property in the Fillmore district. Pain Leaves Its Mark.

Pale faces and haggard eyes tell of female suffering. They tell of weak blood and shattered nerves, sleepless nights and drowsy days. There are a million women in America suffering as Mrs. Kelth suffered. They have head-aches, pains in the stomach, in the legs, arms and back, are dull and drowsy by day, nervous and sleepless by night. If you have these symptoms you have "female troubles". Wine of Cardui has completely cured hundreds of thousands of such cases. It stops the pain and insures perfect health. Do you realize what a joy perfect health would be?

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

The Executive Committee of the Stephen M. White memorial fund decided at their meeting in the Mayor's office yesterday to hold but three meetings a week in future. They will be held on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons at 1:15 o'clock. Several sub-committees reported gratifying progress in the work of securing sub-activations.

assulted a Chinaman.

George Ely, Joseph Gervaine and Martin Rose, none of whom is over 14 years of age, were arrested in Boyle Heights yesterday, charged with battery. It is alleged that they assaulted a Chinese vegetable peddier because would not give them something out of his wagon. They are said to have hrown stenes at the Chinamen, one of which fractured his arm.

Oriental Scenes.

J. W. Erwin of San Francisco, president of the California Camera Club, will secture for the Los Angeles Camera Club next Friday evening. His subject will be "Snapahots in the Land of the Jap, the Chinaman and the Filipino," Illustrated with fine colored sides. Mr. Erwin will be tendered a reception Thursday evening at the club rooms on South Hill street.

Bankrupt Leborer.

Archibaid F. McLean of Albambra, who states that he is a laborer, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday, giving his liabilities at $1271, and his assets at $1888, all of which he claims to be exempt from execution. The body of his assets consists of a government homestead at Alhambra, valued at $1750. On this is a mortgage of $575 and there are sundry other debts amounting to $694.

Wheel Was Stolen.

Nearly all the hackmen in the city were engaged early yesterday morning in a search for a hack which two unknown men had stolen from where it had been left on Spring street. During the absence of the driver about 1 clock, the strangers appropriated his sehicle and started to take a ride. They drove through the First Ward, visited last Los Angeles Park, and finally set the vehicle on North Main street mear Naud Junction. There two policemen found it and drove it to the Police Station.

Knowl Better Now.

J. L. Edwards did not know yester-day that there is such a thing as a bill-posting trust in this city, and having been employed to distribute hand bills, he proceeded about the work with such seal that he began pasting or tying them to almost every place he could find which would hold them. This was of course contrary to ordinances in such cases made and provided, and therefore a policeman stopped his work and sent him to the Police Station on a charge of misdemeanor. He was released on ball.

It was expected that some developments might occur in the United States District Attorneyship controversy when Senator Bard returned to the city, the incumbent of the office, Frank P. Flint. having sprung an utilimatum during the Senator's absence, which it was thought might force the Senator to declare himself in emphatic terms. Senator Bard has arrived home, but has not expressed himself in any way in regard to the Flint ded. When asked last night what he thought about the matter, he said he had nothing to say. Evidently the Senator is not losing much sleep over the def.

ing those who have money in their rooms to take a simple precaution to prevent the entrance of thieves. The plan which they advise is to take a piece of stiff wire, bend it in the shape of a hairpin and hang it over the door-knob in such manner that the two ends of the wire pass through the hole in the key when the door is locked. It is then impossible to turn the key, and if the wire is long enough it is impossible for a person outside the room to lift it off the doorknob. The use of such a simple device, the detectives say, might prevent many a burglary. Found the Money. Found the Money.

Found the Money.

L. Lazarus was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing two $29 bills. A tourist named Lovett, from Buffalo, N. Y., who is staying at No. 515 South Hill street, sent some clothing to Lazarus's shop at Fifth and Olive streets, and forgot to remove the money from the pockets. He remembered the money a few minutes later, but when he went to the cleaning establishment it had been removed. He charged Lazarus with the theft, but the latter denied it. It so happened that Lovett had taken the number of one of the bills, and later, when two detectives found the bills among Lazarus's money in his pocket, they arrested him. On his person was also found a U.S.C. medical pin bearing the initials "C. W. B."

Passion-tide Observance.

Tuesday of Passion Week was observed at the First Congregational Church last night with musical services, which were attended and enjoyed by a large gathering. "padding" this way, in order to encourage bona fide advertisers to come in, just as decoy ducks are used by smart hunters to lure the real birds. Mr. Hardupson, with some impatience, added that if his brother directors knew one-tenth as much about the ethics of newspaper publishing as he did, they would not be so ready to find fault with everything.

Mr. Herringson then gave the president an outline of the informal talk indulged in by the directors at the previous meeting. He told the president that it had been decided to appeal to him, as an enormously wealthy man, to contribute a few hundred thousand dollars of his enormous wealth from time to time, either in the shape of cash—which would be much preferred—or of stock in one of his corporations, so as to stiffen the backbone of the Trumpet, as it were, and enable them to make a more vigorous onslaught upon the leatherm. stock business, he would cheerfully make the Trumpet a present of half a he said, that his companies were just now in such a condition that they wouldn't do the Los Angeles Trumpet, or anyone else, much good, unless they had an aching for Irish dividends. He proposed, however, as the best way to help things along, that he should organize a brand-new oil company, and make a present of it to the Trumpet.

He said he had millions of acres of land staked out, between Bering Strait and Cape Horn, that was as good oil land as much of the territory now in the market. He could throw a few thousand acres of this land into a corporation, under the laws of Arisona, where the fees were small, with a big capitalization—say, 1,000,000,000 shares, with par value of 5 cents a share.
Then they could give away a share of oil stock with each copy of the Trumpet, so that subscribers who paid 50 cents a month would really be getting the paper for one-third of nothing—supposing the oil stock to be worth par.
Mr. Hardupson added that he had ali

Failure of Attempt to Remove th Blockade from the "United Republican Club"-Other Doings at the City Hall

The views of Police Commissioner lames A. Keeney on the disreputable ocial clubs of the city found vent at he board meeting yesterday morning. In expressing his sentiments, the Commissioner "grilled" the United Republican Club to a brown turn and it is by no means likely that the ladies and "gents" of color who have hitherto frequented the place will look at hemselves in the mirror with interesting pride in consequence.

"Mr. Brown says that the club has a bona fide object. That is true. But the object is solely the illicit sale of liquor in disregard of law. I favor social clubs for the poor man, no less than for the rich man and the slik-stecking, if they are honestly maintained. But clubs like the United American Club and the Manhattan Club do no good to any one. They are menace to the young men, to the morals of the community and to the poor man—and the laborer. The club managers get the working man into their place that they may get him frunk and roll him for every cent has. That certainly is a detriment to his family.

"It is probable that these clubs have some standing at law, as they hold charters from the State, but their remedy from any unjust act of the police department is in the courts. I move that the request for a removal of the blockade be denied. Have I a second?"

Mr. Kenney had spoken rapidly, and it took the other members a minute to get their breath. There was an exchange of glances and then Mr. Stime of a repetition of the former hrawis. He said the club has a gymnasium and is equipped like other, and more pretentious clubs. During the last few weeks a policeman has been stationed at the door, and none but the sincers of the club allowed to enter. The officers find it rather lonely in there all alone, and will greatly appressate the favor if the commission will refer the blockade withdrawn.

"It is probable that these clubs have some standing at law, as they hold charters from the State, but their remedy from any unjust act of the police department is in the courts. I move that the request for a removal of the blockade be denied. Have I a second?"

Mr. Kenney had spoken rapidly, and it took the other members a minute to get their breath. There was an exchange of glances and then Mr. Stimson drawled out:
"I support the motion."

Attorney Brown pleaded that the new management will run everything according to the law and the gospel; that no women will be allowed in the place, and there will be small likelihood of a repetition of the former brawls. He said the club has a gymnasium and is equipped like other and more pretentious clubs. During the last few weeks a policeman has been stationed at the door, and none but the afficers of the club allowed to enter. The officers find it rather lonely in there all alone, and will greatly appreciate the favor if the commission will order the blockade withdrawn.

But on roll call all the commissioners roted to sustain Mr. Keeney in his position.
"The blockade will still be main-

Under such circumstances it seems likely that something radical may be done by the commission. Since the play for Sunday opening was made by the saloons there has been a disposition on the part of saloon men to given play for suinday opening was made by the saloons there has been a disposition on the part of saloon men to give up their restaurant liquor licenses. The board may take advantage of this spirit and annul all the existing licenses where there is not a bona-fide restaurant run every day in the week. Such would be indicated by the motion made by Mr. Kenney yesterday, calling upon the Chief to investigate every restaurant liquor license extant, and report what are run in a legitimate manner, with meals furnished three times a day every day in. the week, and what are located in saloons where they operate as subterfuges to evade the law. Mr. Stimson, the other member from the Fifth, again fortified Mr. Keeney by seconding the motion.

PUBLICITY OF THE BLOTTER.

Anent the trial of Capt. S. P. Hens ley for the suppresssion of ne Police station, the City Attor Police station, the City Attorney yesterday returned a report on the publicity of the blotter. The opinion states that if the hotter is used by the force in the discharge of their duties it is a public document; but that the Police Commission in the discharge of its duties can regulate the manner in which it is used and decide to whom it shall be shown.

As the Police Commission has already decreed that the blotter must be shown to the representatives of the daily papers at the station, there seems to be no further ground for controversy on that head. It is presumed that for the good of all concerned the shyster lawyers will, in the ruture, as in the past, be denied access to this book.

Harry Hotchkiss on Trial for Killing His Stepfather, Edwin Thomas-Says He Did it Because He Couldn't See His Mother Abused.

Harry Hotchkiss, a sixteen-year-old lad, whose home is in Santa Monica, is on trial in the criminal court for the murder of his stepfather, Edwin Thomas, on February 24. It took all Thomas, on February 24. It took all the forenoon yesterday and a short time after dinner to select a jury. The twelve men who are trying the case are John H. Martin, C. M. W. Anderson, N. C. Smith, J. L. Viereek, D. C. Owens, J. S. Smith, D. J. Lewis, Worth Keene. Theo Matthews, D. Jones and C. O. Albright.

trial. Deputy District Attorney Mc-Comas is prosecuting the case, and the defense is in the hands of Messrs. Tan-ner & Taft. The story of the killing is a pathetic one. The boy says he shot his step-father because he came home drunk and was abusing his mother. Edwin Thomas in his lifetime was a nowerfully-built man who was his head. So serious was the wound that the drunken man died an hour later.

One witness stated yesterday that she heard the fatal shot fired and immediately thereafter a woman's voice rang out in a shriek, saying: "Harry, oh, my God, Harry, you've killed him!"

As soon as the deed was done the boy proceeded to give himself over to the peace officers. He went straight to Justice Guidinger's office in search of Constable Pritchard. At that time he stated that he wanted to give himself up, for he had shot his stepfather. He said that Thomas had come home cursing and abusing his mother, or he wouldn't have done it. Thomas had also threatened to cut his wife's throat. The boy told the officers that he fired two shots, but that one went into the air. Why he fired into the air he did not know. Then he threw his gun into the back yard. He was greatly excited, and was in his shirt sleeves.

He was arrested as soon as his stepfather died.

The theory of the prosecution is that the killing was with malice aforethought, and that Thomas was ruthlessly shot down before he made any attempt to get into the house.

As soon as the prosecution closed its case yesterday the defense opened up with a long procession of character witnesses, but the State admitted that Hotchkins's reputation for peace rnd quiet was good. Testimony was then introduced to show that Thomas had had trouble with his wife up town on the afternoon of the shooting, and that be straightway became drunk as a lord before following her to the house. His family troubles were many; he was always accusing his wife of unfaithfulness: his reputation was bad on account of drunkenness and disorder, and he often threatened to end it all by violence.

The trial will be resumed this morning at 10 c'lock. The witnesses exam-re often treatened to end it all by violence.

The trial will be resumed this morning at 10 c'clock. The witnesses examined yesterday were H. H. Getz, Dr. P. S. Lindsay, Miss C. Nelson, I. W. Pritchard, William C. Platt, Justice A. M. Guidinger, O. S. Westover, I. N. Lowman, George Longfellow and others.

Edgar McWeaver of Santa Monica was committed to the Whittler Re-form School by Judge York yesterday. It was a violent attack of puppy love that did it. Edgar may conclude that

But he doesn't now. The heart of a Boston girl has him in its meshes. Young McWeaver, is 17 years old. His father, Michael K. McWeaver, is a gardener; his mother is an invalid of considerable means, who is living at Sierra Madre in the hope of relief from lung trouble. A year or so ago Edgar was in Boston. There he met a girl in one of the suburban villages, whereupon something went "crack" inside of him and the deluges of love flooded him about. He complimented the sweet young thing by fearing that everybody else would fall in love with her, too, and it was hard work to break away from her. But he got into some sort of trouble at last and hurriedly left for California.

No sooner was he back than a winter of gnawing dsicontent set in. Nothing went as he wanted it in his home. He was dissatisfied and irritable. He wouldn't mind his father and spent much of his time composing polysyllable epistles to "the fairest of her sex" near Boston town. The monotony of this state of things he varied by running away a time or two.

Less than a month ago he returned home without money. One day the father found a bank check on his desk signed by the son and soon noted it to be a forgery. Edgar was duly lectured and told he would end in the bad place if he did things like that, but Edgar was in love and spring fever filled his being with a wild delirium, the visions of his mind being always of the Massachusetts maiden.

He must see her. A forged check on his mother's bank account for $175 gave him a good start.

on his mother's bank account for $175 gave him a good start.

He first made efforts to cash it with the Santa Fe agent at Santa Monica, but failed. Then he came to Los Angoles, and at the Santa Fe headquarters here succeeded in buying a ticket to Boston and off he went. As soon as his parents learned what he had done, they set the telegraph wires to clicking and finally succeeded in heading off their love-lorn child at Albuquerque and let him have just enough money to live on until he could get querque and let him have just enough money to live on until he could get work there. But he wasn't noticed to have done anything. Finally they sent him a ticket and he was home again. Then it was that it seemed best to send him to Whittier. So careful in his testimony against the boy was the father, that Edgar was hardly committed. Mr. McWeaver wanted his son sent to the reformatory, but he didn't want it to appear that he was a bad boy. Edgar admitted the forgeries, and being a brave lover would not deny the eastern attachment. The father asseverates that the girl is an unworthy personage.

SUIT ALLEGING FRAUD.

The Pacific Crude Oil Company, its ard of directors and a man named D. L. Wilbur were made defendants yes-terday in an action for a receiver, be-gun by D. F. Garretson, who owns 11.-000 shares of the company's capital stock. The directors are G. W. Walker, W. E. Cummings, B. E. Corbin, R. W. Kenney, R. T. Lee, E. C. Dieter and J. H. Knightingale. Plaintiff charges the company with mismanagement, misappropriation and negligence on the part of the directors. The capitalization of the company is $1,000,000, divided into $1 shares, and, besides the stock hold by plaintiff, it is alleged that 70,000 shares have been issued to about 125 stockholders, in behalf of all of whom suit for the appointment of a receiver is begun. The company organized in April, 1900, and it was subsequently advertised that the officers and directors had all paid for their stock at 10 cents per share, and plaintiff alleges that the money in the treasury on July 6, 1900, was $500. But it was in April, says the complaint, that the directors conspired to cheat and defraud the corporation.

At that time, it is alleged, $4,000 shares were issued to Corbin, as secretary, to procure a lease from the Commonwealth Oil and Mining Company, and another block of $4,000 shares to secure a lease from the American Girl Oil Company. Plaintiff now alleges that these leases were worthless, and the transfer of stock to Corbin was that these leases were worthless, and the transfer of stock to Corbin was made in pursuance of a plan to divide the '68,000 shares among the directors, and that on May 29 each director got 6785 shares, as did also Wilbur, who was at that time general manager and superintendent of properties, without salary. On May 21, Corbin resigned as secretary and Wilbur was given the place. It is alleged that Wilbur drew down 190 a month as expenses for May and June, in addition to other expenses for May, June, July and August in 3469.85, presumably two salaries for his two capacities.

On or about July 3, 1900, Wilbur went to Bakersfield and secured a lease to oil property belonging to J. B. Treadwell, and the directors voted Treadwell 250,000 shares of Pacific Crude stock for the land, relying solely upon Wilbur's examination and report of the property. Since obtaining this lease the company has spent about $15,000 in developing oil on the property, and the lease is now thought to be worth about $100,000. But, it is alleged, the directors have neglected to attend to the business of the corporation; the officers have incurred an indebtedness of $2000, which the directors have made no provision to pay, as the terms of the lease have not been complied with, until plaintiff Zears that the rights of the corporation; will be forfeited unless the court interferes and protects the rights of the stockholders.

It is alleged that the entire 318,000.

It is alleged that the entire 318,00% shares of controverted stock issued to Corbin and Wilbur for leases, were so disposed or by the directors in bad faith, and with intent to appropriate to themselves the property of the corporation without compensation and in pursuance of a conspiracy.

To protect his rights plaintiff has had to employ counsel, and he thinks he should be allowed $10,000 for attorney's fees. He asks also that the stock is should be allowed $10,000 for attorney's fees. He asks also that the stock is sued to Corbin and Wilbur as complained of be annulled, and that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the property pending the suit. Plaintiff's attorneys are Messrs. Goodrich and McCutcheon and Oscar A. Trippet, Esq.

As a bit of diversion from deep thinking, the afternoon closed with a spicy and clever article on "Sea Bathing" by Miss Antoinette Ward.

HUSBAND'S BRUTALITY.

Testerday an inquest was held on the body of Mrs. Etta Bentler, who died suddenly at No. 1575 West Sixteenth street, under what were considered at the time to be suspicious circumstances.

the attention of the Coroner to the case were witnesses at the hearing. Some of the witnesses were afraid to tell the story of Mrs. Bentler's sufferings with her husband present, so all persons were excluded from the room during the hearing.

The general trend of the testimony was that Bentler made his wife's life a misery. They had difficulty over money matters, and he is alleged to have threatened to kill her, as well as telling her that he wished she were dead. Bentler himself admisted having had trouble with her last Sunday morning, when the news was broken to him that some of his wife's people were coming down from the north to visit them. Her death was probably brought on by the excitement of this quarrel. He said that she had a stroke of paralysis about ten months ago, and another about six weeks ago. The adopted son, Hermann, gave testimony tending to support the story of Bentler.

Old Man Knocked Down by a Yard Engine, but Rescued Before the Wheels Reached Him.

Oliver McNutt, aged 65, had about as close a call for his life yesterday as it is possible for a man to have, and escape with no more serious injuries than a number of severe bruises. He owes his life to the courage and coolness of two switchmen employed by the Southern Pacific, and he does not know who his saviors are. At the risk of their own lives they prevented his being ground to death between the wheels of an engine in the freight yards a short distance south of River Station.

McNutt was going to Ginner about 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and had to pass under the viaduct on San Fernando street over which the Downey avenue street cars cross the Southern Pacific tracks. At that point there Doctors Mystified.

A woman is sick; some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctor fails to cure the disease? Still, we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician. It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of America to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering.

In this way she was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago, a great army of her fellow-beings are to-day constantly applying for advice and relief, and the fact that more than one hundred thousand of them have been successfully treated by Mrs. Pinkham during the last year is indicative of the grand results which are produced by her unequaled experience and training.

No physician in the world has had such a training, or has such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation to the most complicated diseases of the

This, therefore, is the reason why Mrs. Pinkham, in her laboratory at Lynn, Mass., is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to WATSONVILLE APPLES. The Pajaronian says the apple crop of the Pajaro Valley last season was not to exceed 1890 carloads. Of these 585 went directly from Watsonville outside the State, a good deal of which went to Europe. The export apples were all Pippins. Los Angeles relies very largely on Watsonville for winter apples, many carloads of which are handied here. It is true, as the Pajaronian remarks, that a good many of them are reshipped to points outside of California.

themselves together for the express purpose of enforcing the following demands, which they have presented to their employers:

(a) Your place of business shall not open before 7 a.m.

(b) That you shall allow your employes one hour for each meal.

(c) That you shall pay your employes at least once a week.

(d) That your place of business shall close promptly at 6 o'clock every evening except Saturday evenings and the evenings previous to holidays.

(e) That comfortable seats be pisced behind counters of all stores where women clerks are employed.

(f) That your store close on Labor day and all the other holidays that are generally observed in this fitste.

Some of these demands are arbitrary. Take No. 1 as an illustration. A man has a right to open his place of business at any time he chooses. As a matter of fact there is a mandatory, coercive tone in all these demands, except Nos. 2, 3 and 5. To dictate to an employer that he shall close his store on certain days in the year, open at a certain stated hour every morning, and close at a specified hour in the evening is passing beyond, the bounds of reason and entering the borderland that leads to injustice and force. Besides, the demands are unreasonable, and but one side of the question is viewed. Suppose, for instance, that an employer should insist that his employes be in bed at 9 o'clock sharp every evening on the ground that by losing sleep after that hour they enfeebled their health and reduced their working capacity? Or, again, suppose that he did not like their views on politics, and insisted on their accepting his own political tents on the penalty of discharge? The demand would be brutally mandatory in both cases, but not more so or more unreasonable than that of the Scranton clerks. Society is constituted on the principle of mutual concessions. Its cohesive power comes from the fact that we are all governed by a law, unwritten, of ourse, but none the less effective, not to go beyond a certain limit in any of our actions. count of Absent Witnesses.

FRANKFORT (Ky...) April 2.—The case of Garnet P. Ripley, the Henry-county captain of the Taylor Militia Company, under indictment for complicity in the Goebel murder conspiracy, was called today. The list of witnesses called by the commonwealth indicates that very much the same evidence as that brought out in the trial of exsecretary of State Caleb Powers last summer, is to be introduced in this trial, with new features relative to Ripley. So many witnesses on both sides failed to appear that the attorneys consulted and agreed to postpone the case and call it for trial next Tuesday. Among the witnesses for the prosecution were ex-Governor Bradley, ex-Chief Justice Hazelrigg, ex-Adjutant-General Collier and others. Ripley is represented by J. T. O'Nell and W. M. Cravens, and, the State by State's Altorney, Pranklin, County Attorney Pohlesgrove and Judge B. G. Williams. T. C. Campbell, who was associated with the prosecution in the Howard and Powers cases, was not present, and it is understood will not be in the Ripley case.

It was feared that if granted the desired privilege the company would use it for freight traffic, and so there was a heavy opposition offered against it.

CITY BONDS SOLD. Proposals were received at the same meeting for the purchase of the $6600 worth of bonds for the improvement of the pleasure wharf, as authorized at a special city election held a month ago. The bonds are to run forty years, one-fortieth being payable each year, and bear 5 per cent. Interest. The First National Bank of Long Beach offered $700 premium for the whole issue, and that offer was accepted. The next

"Tale stands for something definite, and permanent, and lasting" he said, when touching upon the outline of policy displayed in the government of the justitution. "Above everything else, it tries to develop man. This has been its keynote from the start."

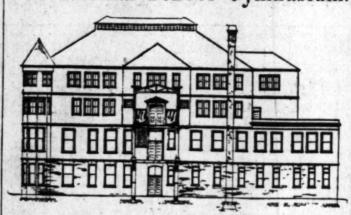

"We cannot compete with New York or the other large cities in the opportunities offered for professional studies. We cannot give to our incipient lawyers the study of large cases. We cannot bring before the eyes of our future doctors the extraordinary diseases with which large city hospitals are rife. We cannot bring our theologians in close contact with the sins on a large scale as are also evident in those large communities. But we can teach the vast underlying principles which govern all.

"It is Yale's idea that a college is more than a mere technical training school. It is the one guiding principle of our university that men are not to be trained in text alone so that they may attain success in one line, but in the general principles which are the making of a man.

Once change the regulation polkadotted dooryard to an open lawn outlined and framed by massed shrubbery and the delighted man of the house will never allow the speckled effect to be repeated on his premises. If it is so great an advantage from the purely utilitarian viewpoint of the manipulator of the lawn mower, how much greater from the higher point of view of esthetic beauty, from the actual pleasure of something charming to look at every day in the year from one's own windows? Is not a small expanse of fresh green turf across which the shadows come and go better than the hit-and-miss style?

Try it. Shrubs and plants gathered together in a border of irregular width are not only more beautiful in themselves, and well out of the way of the lawn mower, but they are far more in such a border than anywhere eige. FOLLOWING NATURE'S PLAN.

Just you try this plan. Big or little, any garden so arranged is far and away ahead of the crammed and disorderly array of individual shrubs usually found scattered about what should be an open lawn. Now, when the border is made and the shrubs set out, do give the poor things a chance for their lives. That is, do not try to improve on nature's plan of making each species, and often each variety unlike all other species; do not try to carve them all into the same form. Let them alone till they have opportunity to show their characteristics—show what they were intended to be like. By the time they have accomplished this their own style will be found so much better than anything that can be imparted with pruning shears that their future will be secure. Every two or three years the oldest wood can be cut out entirely, and the new allowed to take its place; such pruning as that is legitimate, and so is the removal of dead wood or of branches that make the bush too close and dense. But cutting off the end of every twig and branch in a vain attempt to create a growing baseball or some other equally interesting curiosity—bah! That is not pruning. Don't think it for a minute. No such shrubs are to be found in the paintings of Corot, of Tyron, of any landscape painter worthy of the name. What is beautiful in itself. The painters get their in-
